

We Print Gifts Ltd Terms and Conditions of Sale of Goods and Services.

All orders for goods and services are accepted by We Print Gifts Ltd (“the vendor”) subject to the following conditions, which shall form part and govern the contract of sale. All orders placed are accepted under these terms and cannot be cancelled without agreement of the vendor. Any term sought to be imposed by a purchaser either in a document or otherwise that conflicts with or adds to these conditions is not accepted. No agent or representative of the vendor has authority to vary these conditions unless accepted in writing by a director of We Print Gifts Ltd, hereinafter referred to as “a director”.

1. Payments and Price

- (a) The vendor reserves the right to vary the quoted price for the goods by upward additions in accordance with market conditions at the date of actual supply and the purchaser shall pay such additions in addition to the quoted price. Price Lists do not constitute an offer.
- (b) All invoices are due for payment on the date shown on the invoice. Payment is to be made in sterling unless otherwise agreed in writing by a director.
- (c) All overdue accounts will be charged, on a daily basis, commercial interest at 5% above the base rate of the Nat West plc obtaining at the time.
- (d) Due to the bespoke “made to order” nature of printed lanyards, ID Cards and other personalised items, the purchaser shall not be entitled to a “cooling off” period to cancel the Work ordered. However, if the Purchaser cancels any contract, the Company shall only charge the Purchaser for any materials purchased for the contract and Preliminary Work or Work already undertaken up to the time of cancellation

2. Availability of Goods

The vendor will use its best endeavours to comply with the date named for despatch or delivery which date is given and intended as estimate only and is not to be the essence of the contract. If owing to non-availability of the goods or any other causes beyond the vendor’s control, the vendor shall be unable to effect delivery hereunder it shall be at liberty to determine the contract or part thereof by giving notice in writing to the purchaser.

2.1 Late Delivery

All despatch dates given by the Vendor are not of the essence and whilst the Vendor will use its best endeavours to deliver the Goods in accordance with the Purchasers requirements, the Vendor will not be liable for any consequences of late delivery howsoever caused.

3. Property and Risk

For so long as any amounts remain owing from the purchaser to the vendor (whether immediately due or not) title to the property of the goods shall remain in the vendor and ownership will not pass to the purchaser until the vendor has received payment in full. In the event of the purchaser reselling the goods, if the vendor has not received all amounts owing to it, the purchaser shall account to the vendor for the proceeds of any such sale and meanwhile will hold all proceeds of such sale of such goods upon trust of the vendor until the vendor have received such amounts in full. The vendor shall have the right to trace all proceeds in accordance with the principles of R. v. Halletts Estates 1880 13CH.D96. At any time after the due date for payment from the purchaser to the vendor, and so long as such amounts have not been received by the vendor in full, the vendor, at the purchaser’s expense, shall have the right to enter the purchaser’s premises and remove there from all goods which remain the property of the vendor.

4. Design Variation

Whilst the vendor makes every effort to ensure that goods supplied correspond to in every respect with the proof, sample, specification or description provided as the case may be, the vendor is not responsible for the minor variations in specification, in colour or other design features, and no such minor variation shall entitle the purchaser to rescind the contract or shall be the subject of any claim against the vendor by the purchaser.

5. Intellectual property rights

- 5.1 Ownership. The vendor grants no right or licence to THE PURCHASER by implication, estoppel or otherwise to the Products or any Intellectual Property Rights of the vendor. The Vendor shall retain all ownership rights, title, and interest in and to its own products and services and all intellectual property rights therein, subject only to the rights and licences specifically granted in any licence agreement.
- 5.2 Rights. The vendor (and not THE PURCHASER) has the sole rights, to all copyright, patent, registration and trademarks, for the Products and any Intellectual Property Rights incorporated therein.
- 5.3 Pursuit of Infringers. THE PURCHASER shall notify the vendor of infringements of the vendors Intellectual Property Rights of which THE PURCHASER becomes aware. THE PURCHASER shall reasonably assist the vendor at no cost to THE PURCHASER, in pursuing the vendors legal rights against any such infringers. The vendor, at its sole discretion, shall determine whether to pursue any particular case of infringement.
- 5.4 Proprietary Markings and Copyright Notices. THE PURCHASER shall not remove or destroy any proprietary, confidentiality, trademark, registration, service mark, or copyright markings or notices placed upon or contained in any products, badges, materials or documentation received from the vendor in connection with this Agreement.

6. Confidentiality

- 6.1 Confidential Information. The parties acknowledge that in their performance of their duties hereunder either party may communicate to the other (or its designees) certain confidential and proprietary information, including without limitation information concerning THE PURCHASER's purchasers, supplies or data, the vendors' products and services, and the know-how, technology, techniques, or business or marketing plans related thereto (collectively, the "Confidential Information") all of which are confidential and proprietary to, and trade secrets of, the disclosing party. Confidential Information does not include information that:
 - (i) is public knowledge at the time of disclosure by the disclosing party;
 - (ii) becomes public knowledge or known to the receiving party after disclosure by the disclosing party other than by breach of the receiving party's obligations under this Section 6 or by breach of a third party's confidentiality obligation;
 - (iii) was known by the receiving party prior to disclosure by the disclosing party other than by breach of a third party's confidentiality obligation; or
 - (iv) is independently developed by the receiving party.

6.2 Protection of Confidential Information.

As a condition to the receipt of the Confidential Information from the disclosing party, the receiving party shall:

- (i) not disclose in any manner, directly or indirectly, to any third party any portion of the disclosing party's Confidential Information;
- (ii) not use the disclosing party's Confidential Information in any fashion except to perform its duties hereunder or with the disclosing party's express prior written consent;
- (iii) disclose the disclosing party's Confidential Information, in whole or in part;
- (iv) take all necessary steps to ensure that its employees and agents are informed of and comply with the confidentiality restrictions contained in this Agreement; and party agrees that damages are not an adequate remedy for any such violation and that the other party will be entitled to injunctive relief against each violation.

6.3 Publicity

It is agreed and acknowledged by the Purchaser that the Vendor may publicise that the Purchaser is a purchaser of the Vendor and uses the Product as Licenced.

7. Claims

- (a) No liability for any claim for damage or non-functionality shall be accepted unless the purchaser notifies the vendor in writing within seven days of delivery. This period may be extended at the sole discretion of the vendor where the manufacturer's replacement policy exceeds this deadline.
- (b) No liability for any claim for missing items shall be accepted unless the vendor is notified in writing by the purchaser within seven days of delivery.
- (c) No liability for any claim will be accepted in the case of goods differing in quantity or descriptions from the particulars given on the delivery note unless the vendor is notified in writing by the purchaser within seven days of delivery and the onus is on the purchaser to prove any shortage.
- (d) In the case of active third-party on-site maintenance contracts, the purchaser accepts an obligation to use the services of the contracted third-party to resolve claims under clause 7(a).
- (c) In the case of manufacturers who operate direct product support and returns procedures, the purchaser accepts an obligation to process their claim directly through the manufacturer.

8. Copyright

- (a) The Company shall not be required to print any matter which in his opinion is or may be of an illegal, offensive, extreme or libellous nature or an infringement of the proprietary or other rights of any third party. The Company shall be indemnified by the Purchaser in respect of any claims, costs and expenses arising out of the printing by the Company for the Purchaser of any illegal or unlawful matter including matter which is libellous or infringes copyright, patent, design or any other proprietary or personal rights. The indemnity shall include (without limitation) any amounts paid on a lawyer's advice in settlement of any claim that any matter is libellous or such an infringement.
- (b) The Purchaser shall be responsible for obtaining all necessary authorities and consents to reproduce (non-exhaustively) artwork, photographs, copyright text and the like ("Materials") prior to instructing the Company to reproduce the same. The Purchaser shall indemnify and hold blameless the Company against all demands, actions, costs, expenses (including but not limited to legal costs and disbursements), losses and damages arising from or suffered or incurred by reason of any claim (including but not limited to the defence of such claim) that that the reproduction of the materials by the Company infringes the intellectual property or other rights of any third party or misuses the confidential information of a third party.
